GLOBAL ETHICS DAY 2024

Ways for Healthcare Organizations to Participate

We're asking doctors, nurses, mental health workers, physical therapists, social workers, and all healthcare professionals to empower ethics by planning events, facilitating workshops, or publishing articles on or around October 16, 2024.

Continue reading to learn how you and your colleagues can get involved.

> Ethics is about making the effort to evaluate competing points of view and then truly caring about the impact of the choices you have made. Ethics is not some cure-all for the world's problems, but it is an actual process for finding solutions."

— Joel Rosenthal, president of Carnegie Council

Participant Highlight

ICN
International Council of Nurses
The global voice of nursing

The International Council of Nurses launched a revised code of ethics in response to COVID-19.

"We are launching the new Code on Global Ethics Day to highlight the changes we see in nurses' working environments, the challenges they face, and the ethical dilemmas which COVID-19 has brought to the forefront."

View the Code of Ethics

Ethics in Healthcare
Event and Workshop Ideas for the 11th Annual Global Ethics Day

Event Ideas

- Ethics in Patient Care Symposium: How can ethics inform end-of-life care?
- Bioethics Film Festival: Organize a festival showcasing movies that explore ethical dilemmas in healthcare.

Workshop Ideas

- Ethical Decision-Making in Healthcare: What practical frameworks exist to assist practitioners in their decision-making?
- Community Engagement Workshop: Host a community forum to discuss pressing local ethical issues in public health.

Resources for Global Ethics Day Planning

Download the 2024 Global Ethics Day Toolkit

Have questions? Get in touch.