GLOBAL ETHICS DAY 2022

Society is facing some extraordinary challenges

Partisanship & nationalism on the rise

Politicians around the world are retreating from multilateralism and attacking democratic norms.

Emerging technologies exacerbating inequality

Artificial intelligence, nanotechnology, brain-machine interfaces, and more present new questions and ethical concerns.

Acceleration of climate change

According to the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change's sixth assessment (AR6), it is now more likely than not that global warming will exceed 1.5°C.

What is Global Ethics Day?

Established by Carnegie Council in 2014, Global Ethics Day is an annual moment with the goal of empowering ethics through the actions of citizens, businesses, professional organizations, schools, governments, and nonprofits.
